

OC INROOM MAGAZINE

1. Bear Flag Pub Co. fresh seafood selections. 2. Waterline Newport Beach serves up scallops with peas and carrots. 3. Fresh Pacific oysters served with raspberry vinaigrette & lemon with a refreshing glass of wine while you enjoy the sunset viewside at Fly N Fish. 4. Seared dover scallops, wild mushroom risotto, herb sautéed greens and fire bean ragout at The Bangalore Restaurant.

NEWPORT BEACH & CDM VILLAGE

LOCATED ALONG THE PACIFIC COAST highway, you will find the Balboa Bay Resort's newly renovated restaurant Waterline Newport Beach (3221 West Coast Hwy, Newport Beach; 949.645.5000; balboabayresort.com) with a waterfront dining experience. From innovative appetizers like squid tagliatelle to freshly caught dishes like local halibut and bass, Waterline is an excellent choice for premiere waterfront dining. It would be impossible to not include Lark Creek (957 Newport Center Dr, Newport Beach; 949.640.6700; larkcreek.com) on the list where seasonal dishes are all the rage like the shrimp loco salad and lobster arrabbiata. In the beautiful Corona del Mar Village, The Bangalore Restaurant (2991 East Coast Hwy, Corona Del Mar; 949.673.6343; thebangalorestaurant.com) offers primo steaks and fresh seafood paired with top-notch martinis in giant banquettes with white tablecloths. Enjoy freshly shucked oysters with a refreshing glass of wine while you enjoy the sunset in Newport Beach at Fly N Fish, (2304 W Oceanfront, Newport Beach; 949.673.8400; www.flynfishoysterbar.com) located in the heart of the Boardwalk and just a short stroll down from the Newport Beach Pier.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY JENNIFER LARSEN

